

Industrial visit 2023

The industrial visit at Yash optics and lenses on 11th May 2023, provided students with practical exposure to lens manufacturing process. The visit enhanced their understanding of lens fabrication techniques, quality control measures and the importance of customization for optimal visual outcomes. The students gained valuable insights into the advancement in the lens technology, which will contribute to their future practice as optometrist.